*LaCrosse
Farmer's Festival*

100 Years... 100 Memories

LaCrosse was officially incorporated 100 years ago on February 13, 1917 and elected it's first mayor T.H. Schobe. In the last 100 years we have built schools, churches and a grain marketing co-op. Farm machinery dealerships, automobile dealerships, hardware stores, fertilizer companies and banks. Grocery stores, barbershops, doctor's offices, newspaper office, tavern, phone company, hotels, cafes, bowling alley, meat markets, insurance offices, repair shops, trucking companies, thrift shop, city park, gazebo and many more. A post office was established in 1892 and was named Dunlor. An official document from Washington D. C. is dated August 14, 1896 addressed to the postmaster in LaCrosse (late Dunlor) so there was a centennial celebration in summer of 1996 to commemorate that date. Our Farmer's Festival will celebrate the memories from the people who helped build our town.
